

ELISABETH LUKAS

Training in original logotherapy
according to Viktor E. Frankl

SEMESTER II

Logotherapy in crisis prevention

CONTENTS

- 1 A psychohygienic theory
- 2 Hubert Rohrer's model
- 3 Lifestyle and life journey
- 4 The concept of crisis
- 5 Noopsychosomatics
- 6 Noopsychosomatics Part 1: Meaning fulfillment and affective state
- 7 Noopsychosomatics Part 2: Affective state and immune status
- 8 Logotherapeutic commentary on the theory of stress
- 9 Logotherapeutic commentary on the theory of trauma
- 10 The "existential vacuum"
- 11 The hunt for "pleasant feelings"
- 12 Criticism of conventional psychosomatic theories
- 13 Why someone stays healthy
- 14 The human being as "decisive being"
- 15 The bridge between logotherapy and behavior therapy
- 16 On deciding and crisis
- 17 The problem of "lip decisions"
- 18 The problem of undecided states of suspension

- 19 Five supplementary rules
- 20 Decision dilemmas
- 21 Four pains in the decision-making process
- 22 Crisis-prone attitudes
- 23 On the pathology of the Zeitgeist
- 24 On the subject of psychopathy
- 25 On the crisis-prone personal attitudes of individuals
- 26 Summary and reflections
- 27 The concept of love in logotherapy
- 28 Expressions of love
- 29 The horizon of having
- 30 "Unhappy love"
- 31 The family - place of ultimate refuge
- 32 Meaning-centered family therapy
- 33 On successful and failing partnerships
- 34 Rules of communication
- 35 On family
- 36 Three value categories according to Frankl
- 37 Work and unemployment
- 38 Manager's disease and Sunday neurosis
- 39 Reflections on sport
- 40 Reflections on art